Any person holding Welding Technology Institute of Australia (WTIA), Australian Welding Institute (AWI) or WTIA-issued International Institute of Welding (IIW) qualifications or certifications is eligible to have their name and qualifications and certifications included in the WTIA register of qualified and certified personnel on the website <http://www.wtiacertification.com.au>.

WTIA financial Personal Members can also include on the register, qualifications and certifications from IIW which were not issued by the IIW Australian Authorised National Body (ANB).

No other organisation's qualifications or certifications can be included on the WTIA website register due to administrative difficulties.

All Qualified and Certified Personnel are encouraged to keep the WTIA record of their contact details up to date. They may authorise WTIA to release these details to members of the public who enquire from the website register.

To add qualifications or certifications, update or correct contact details, or have contact details added to, or removed from, an existing entry, please complete and sign the form below, and either scan and email to a.sinha@wtia.com.au or deliver, mail or fax to WTIA.
